

Ambramicina lactancia®

VETERINARY USE

Antibiotic combination for intramammary application during lactation.

Formula

Cloxacillin (sodium) 0.20 g
Ampicillin (sodium) 0.075 g
Oil vehicle sufficient quantity for one syringe 10 mL

Indications

Prescribed to control mastitis produced by the following germs:

Gram (+) bacteria: Staphylococcus aureus (even in penicillin-resistant strains) Streptococcus spp (even enterococcus); Corynebacterium pyogenes; Clostridium perfringens; Cl. pseudotuberculosis; Listeria monocytogenes; Bacillus anthracis.

Gram (-) bacteria: Haemophilus influenzae; Escherichia coli; Salmonella spp; Shigella spp; Proteus mirabilis; P. morganii; Brucella spp; Neisseria spp; Bordetella pertussis.

Target Species

Cattle during lactation.

Dose, method and way of administration

Cattle: One injector per quarter, that is 10 ml Ambramicina Lactancia®, equivalent to 75 mg sodium ampicillin and 200 mg sodium cloxacillin per quarter) every 12 hours. The complete treatment includes 3 doses.

Presentation

Package with 24 and 120 10-ml syringes.