

Fluximin[®]

VETERINARY USE

Nonsteroid anti-inflammatory, analgesic and antipyretic for horses and cattle. Sterile injectable solution.

Formula

Flunixin (as Meglumine) 5 g
Formulation agents, qs. 100.0 mL

Indications

In horses it is recommended for the relief of inflammation and pain associated with skeletal muscle disorders. It is also recommended for the relief of pain associated with abdominal pain (colics).

In cattle it is recommended for the control of pyrexia associated with respiratory disease, endotoxemia and acute mastitis. It is also indicated in the control of inflammation in endotoxemia and to relieve pain in skeletal muscle disorders.

Dosage and Administration

Horses:

1-2 ml/50 kg of live bodyweight by the intravenous or intramuscular route (equivalent to 1-2 mg/kg flunixin). Once daily or according to the indications of the veterinarian. Do not give intra-arterially

Cattle:

1-2 ml/50 kg of live bodyweight by the intravenous or intramuscular route (equivalent to 1-2 mg/kg flunixin). Once daily or according to the indications of the veterinarian. Do not give more than 2.2 mg/kg per day.

Administer during a 5 day period

Package

Bottle containing 50 ml.